EMPOWERED PATIENT-DOCTOR COMMUNICATION: GETTING WHAT YOU NEED FROM YOUR DOCTOR

Our doctors play a key role in our health care. While medical intervention is a critical part of the picture, it's not the whole picture. Good communication with your doctor not only can help you recover but also can help you heal. Survivor Jessica Safran will lead this workshop to introduce concepts you can use to effectively communicate your needs to your health care team. Jessica is a writer, artist, business consultant, and patient advocate.
